A man is known by the company he keeps, and his character is reflected in his choice of friends. Let's find out who the friends of Comet Ping Pong are...

As the Pizzagate investigation continues and the evidence continues to mount, despite no recognition by mainstream media or the appropriate authorities, it becomes increasingly more difficult to pretend that this is simply not happening.

As this is a very sinister and heart-wrenching case, the entirety of alternative media would no doubt wish it to be false, yet sadly, there is no ignoring the obvious connections and implications once the material has been given even the slightest amount of genuine research, unless you are a State-controlled mainstream outlet.

From the fake news and Russian propaganda narrative to the Comet Ping Pong psyop attempt, it has been clear from the beginning, while taking into account how past situations were similarly dealt with, that there was never intent on the part of the media and public officials to investigate or even entertain what millions of Americans now believe to be a very serious problem that simply cannot be casually forgotten.

In a recent video by HighImpactFlix, it is shown that even now, with all the attention this case is getting by the public, that there are clear connections through Comet's website that should raise alarm for anyone researching a person currently tied to such depravity.

The actual details will be left to the video below as to avoid any issues that have been arising around this case for those speaking truth, but one important aspect of the information within is necessary to reiterate.

Which is simply this: Do not attempt to "self-investigate" within Comet Ping Pong, or try to carry out any vigilante justice, as the-powers-that-shouldn't-be are waiting and hoping that such an act will be carried out in order to highlight where the problem lies, or rather, where they want the mindless masses to believe the problem lies instead of taking notice of the overtly obvious deviant actions taking place at the highest levels of power.

On the Comet Ping Pong website there are still social media links to groups listed as “friends” that further suggest this is not just a simple pizza man:
